Joe Bush's Serenade.

POINT ISABEL, Aug. 30.

TO THE HERALD.

On Sunday night last a number of Joe Bush's friends and admirers wishing to give him some evidence of their admiration, concluded to serenade him. Accordingly they provided themselves with various musical instruments, such as accordions, horn, cowbells, etc. and, stationing themselves under his window, began to make the echoes ring with their melody. On being awakened, however, Joe Bush instead of inviting the young ladies and gentlemen in and entertaining them, ungratefully dampened their musical ardor and admiration with a bucket of cold water. The young ladies and gentlemen composing the party say that Joe Bush is the first person they ever saw who did not enjoy being awakened from his slumbers by such sweet strains of music.

A Chance To Hear The Phonograph.

Mr. J. L. Putegnats has made arrangement with Mr. Cummings, to have the Phonograph exhibited at his Drug Store on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, of this week from 6 to 10 p. m. In order that everybody can get a chance to hear this most wonderful talking machine, the charges for admission have been put at the lowest possible figures. For ten cents you may hear three pieces and a quarter will entitle you to eight. Mr. Cummings has a fine assortment of musical selections played by the best bands in the country; songs and sermons and better than all three or four of the Brady records. Go and hear how Brady administers justice as a police judge and then ask for his election speech. Some of our numerous candidates might get pointers if they take in the honograph.

The Dallas Leaders

Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 26.—A Gazette special from Dallas says: Your correspondent is reliably informed that C. B. Gillespie will support the Clark ticket, and now regrets that he did not accept the nomination for state comptroller. It is understood that Colonel Dick Morgan induced Mr. Gillespie to decline the honor.

Bryan T. Barry has put on the collar, but it is said to be chafing his neck badly.

J. H. McCallen, mayor pro tem Alderman John J. Conroy, Fayette Fitzhugh, C. H. Cooper, Neale Starke and one or two other Clark leaders refusing to eat crow will continue to fight for Warwick.

Colonel Seth Shepard is sulking in his tent. He is the sorest of all the Clark leaders as well as the ablest and a collar Democrat of the most mossbacke type. Judge E. G. Bower is authority for the statement that Wright Cuney has promised to nominate Judge Clark when the Republican convention meets at Fort Worth next month. Bower had a conference with Cuney at Galveston recently, it is stated.

The Goliad Guard says: "Senator Coke is no friend of Grover Cleveland, and it is no surprise to those who have watched his course that he has sworn allegiance to the Hogg wing of the democracy. The old senator presents a beautiful spectacle, standing with one foot upon the Chicago platform and the other upon the Hogg platform. These are so far apart that it must make the senator feel very uncomfortable to stand in this position. It will be seen later on that Coke has made a serious mistake."

THE CAMPAIGN YEAR.

Everybody must have a reliable newspaper. THE "TWICE-A-WEEK" ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC will be a complete history of the important political events that will follow one another in quick succession from now on, until the fate of the great political parties is decided at the polls in November. The indications all point to a political revolution in the Government, unequalled since the election of Andrew Jackson in 1828, or that of Abraham Lincoln in 1860. All who desire to keep fully informed of the successive steps by which this impending revolution is wrought out, and the means by which the coming Democratic victory is won, will find THE "TWICE-A-WEEK" REPUBLIC indispensable. It is issued on Tuesday and Friday of every week, and its readers in every state of the Union will get the important news at least half a week earlier than any weekly paper can furnish it. At the same time, it challenges comparison with any weekly in its literary, agricultural and other special features, which go to make up a complete family paper, yet the price is ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. Subscribe now, or send for free sample copies. Address THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.
